WCHA Postseason

The Western Collegiate Hockey Association women's hockey championship began as the WCHA Playoff Championship in 2000. In 2002, 2003 and 2004, it was called the WCHA Final Five before returning as the WCHA Playoff Championship from 2005 to 2007. Since 2008, the women's postseason championship has been known as the WCHA Final Face-off. Beginning with the 2006 season, the WCHA postseason incorporated a first round best-of-three series to determine the Final Face-off participants. Four teams advance to the WCHA Final Face-off for the two-day tournament.

La Bahn Arena

La Bahn Arena receives final approval

On Nov. 17, 2010, the Wisconsin State Building Commission gave final approval to a multi-level, hockey and swimming competition and training facility to be constructed adjacent to the Kohl Center on the UW-Madison campus. La Bahn Arena will be named after Charles (UW-Madison '49) and Mary Ann La Bahn, the lead donors for the project.

“Mary Ann and I are delighted to participate in the funding for this excellent facility for men’s and women’s hockey and men’s and women’s swimming,” Charles La Bahn said. “The concept is sound and generations of student-athletes will benefit from the comprehensive design and availability of the structure. (UW Director of Athletics) Barry Alvarez and his associates are to be commended for their foresight in planning this much needed facility.”

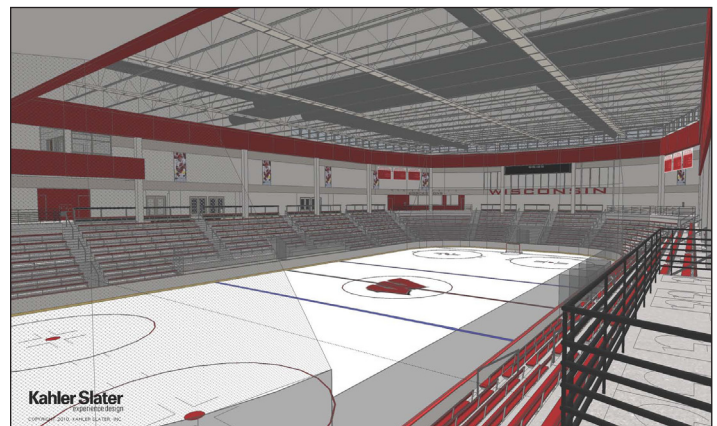

Construction is scheduled to begin in the spring, with the facility set to open in the fall of 2012.

La Bahn Arena will be a tri-level complex that will include, among other items:

- 90' by 200' ice sheet for men’s and women’s hockey practice and women’s competition, with seating for approximately 2,400 spectators
- Men’s and women’s hockey team locker rooms and a visiting team locker room
- Women’s hockey office suite and associated support spaces
- Underground connection to the Kohl Center
- A connecting skywalk to the Southeast Recreation Facility (SERF)

The total cost of the project will be $27.9 million, with two-thirds of that coming from gifts to UW Athletics and the remainder coming from bonding.

“Everyone in our women’s hockey program is very excited about the new facility. Our team will now have a place to call home and everything we need will be right at our fingertips – locker room, training room, weight room, academic center and, of course, the rink itself,” head coach Mark Johnson said. “I want to thank the former players, alumni and donors for their generosity. It’s a great day for our men’s and women’s programs and it’s a great day for hockey!”
